Day-2 Tbilisi city tour

( Breakfast, Dinner)

Arrival Tbilisi - City Tour Start your trip from the capital of Georgia "Tbilisi". This is a wonderful city where the past and the present are harmoniously intertwined. Each street and building, monument has its own special charm. The name of the city comes from the word "Tbilisi" - "warm". Indeed, the city is very warm and sincere. Everyone who has visited at least once will not be able to forget him and will strive to come again and again. Excursion around the city of Tbilisi: a walk along the old streets of Meydan (Abanotubani) to the area of the famous sulfur baths (where those who wish can swim in their free time, where A. Pushkin and M. Lermontov loved to swim), scientists call it a unique architectural monument, which has no analogues in one country in the world. During the city tour you will visit the following directions: Old Tbilisi, Meidani Square, Metekhi Church, Shardeni Street, Peace Bridge, Mtatsminda Park, Narikala Fortress (by cable car), Gabriadze clock tower, Baratashvili

DAY-3 Bodbe Monastery – Signagi – Winery Khareba

(Breakfast , Dinner)

Enjoy Breakfast at the Hotel. Departure to the eastern part of Georgia - Kakheti, the city of Love - Signaghi, which is located on the slopes of the Alazani Valley, this is the vineyard, the birthplace of Georgian wine and a region with interesting architectural monuments. Before reaching Signaghi, we will visit the monastery complex of St. George Bodbe, the Bodbe Monastery of the 4th century - the monastery was St. Nino, the enlightener of Georgia, rests. In the Middle Ages, Bodbe Cathedral was the site of the coronation of the Kakhetian kings. By the Decree of the Russian Emperor Alexander III, from the end of the 19th century a convent was opened here, which functions to the present day. The enchanting beauty of the Alazani Valley and the snow-capped peaks of the Caucasus Mountains open up from the territory of the monastery. Sightseeing tour of the recently restored city of love, small, beautiful Signaghi, which is famous for its eponymous fortress, included in the list of the most famous fortresses in Georgia. Khareba Winery is located in the village of Kvareli at the foot of the massive Caucasus Mountains, overlooking the fertile valley of the Alazani River, famous for its wine-making history. Khareba owns several wineries throughout the country, and at this location the wine is stored in deep tunnels cut through the Caucasus Mountains. Overnight stay at Tbilisi.
